How much will a battery cost in 2026/27?

That trend is expected to continue. In 2026/27, the average pack price is expected to fall below $100/kWh, based on raw material costs, competition, and pressure from alternative technology such as Na-ion batteries, which could be 30% cheaper than LFP devices when production of the former is scaled up.

Is flexibility a good investment in France for grid-scale battery projects?

Aurora Energy Research has published a flexibility market report showing a significant improvement in market conditions in France for grid-scale battery projects

Will aFRR prices continue to rise in 2028?

Aurora expects high prices in the aFRR market to persist until 2028, stabilizing in 2030. Along with an increase in the price differentials in the spot market, driven by higher gas prices, these factors have resulted in an increase of more than 2% in the IRR for battery projects with a commercial operation date in 2025.

Will high-consumption batteries benefit from higher import tariffs?

Aurora estimates an additional 2% increase in IRR above the reference case, driven by consumption during peak production periods. However, batteries located in high-consumption areas are not expected to experience significant benefits, as higher import tariffs would offset revenues during peak hours.
